THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCILS ACT, 1957

(No. 37 of 1957)

AN

to provide for the creation of a Legislative Council for the State of Andhra Pradesh and the increasing of the strength of the Legislative Councils of the States having such Councils and for matters connected therewith.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Eighth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Legislative Councils Act, 1957.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) each of the words and expressions defined in the Representation of the People Act, 1950 (43 of 1950), but not defined in this Act, shall have the same meaning as in that Act;
- (b) "sitting member" means a person who immediately before the commencement of this Act is a member of a Legislative Council.

3. Creation of a Legislative Council for Andhra Pradesh.—(1) As from such date as the President may by order appoint, there shall be a Legislative Council for the State of Andhra Pradesh; and as from that date, in sub-clause (a) of clause (1) of article 168 of the Constitution, after the words "States of", the words "Andhra Pradesh" shall be inserted.

(2) In the said Council, there shall be 90 seats of which—

- (a) the numbers to be filled by persons elected by the Electorates referred to in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) of clause (3) of article 171 shall be 31, 8 and 8, respectively;
 - (b) the number to be filled by persons elected by the members of the Legislative Assembly of Andhra Pradesh in accordance with the provisions of sub-clause (d) of the said clause shall be 31; and
 - (c) the number to be filled by persons nominated by the Governor of Andhra Pradesh in accordance with the provisions of sub-clause (e) of that clause shall be 12.
- (3) As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, the President, after consultation with the Election Commission, shall by order, determine—
- (a) the constituencies into which the State of Andhra Pradesh shall be divided for the purpose of elections to the said Council under each of the sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) of clause (3) of article 171;
 - (b) the extent of each constituency; and
 - (c) the number of seats to be allotted to each constituency.
- (4) As soon as may be after such determination, steps shall be taken to constitute the said Council in accordance with the provisions of this Act and of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 (43 of 1950), and the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (43 of 1951).

4. Increase in the strength of the Bihar Legislative Council.—(1) The total number of seats in the Legislative Council of Bihar shall be increased from 72 to 96 and of those seats—

- (a) the numbers to be filled by persons elected by the Electorates referred to in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) of clause (3) of article 171 shall be 34, 8 and 8, respectively;
 - (b) the number to be filled by persons elected by members of the Legislative Assembly of Bihar in accordance with the provisions of sub-clause (d) of the said clause shall be 34; and
 - (c) the number to be filled by persons nominated by the Governor of Bihar in accordance with the provisions of sub-clause (e) of that clause shall be 12.
- (2) The Delimitation of Council Constituencies (Bihar) Order, 1951, shall until other provision is made by law, have effect subject to the modifications directed by the First Schedule.

(3) As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, elections shall be held to fill—

- (a) the additional seats allotted to the several Council constituencies by the said Order as modified by this Act; and
- (b) the additional seats to be filled by the persons referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1), as if those seats had become vacant.

(4) In order that, as nearly as may be, one-third of the members of the said Council may retire or the 6th May, 1958, and on the expiration of every second year thereafter, the Governor of Bihar shall, after consultation with the Election Commission, make by order such provisions as he thinks fit in regard to the terms of office of the members to be elected to fill the additional seats under sub-section (3).

5. Increase in the strength of the Bombay Legislative Council.—(1) The total number of seats in the Legislative Council of Bombay shall be increased to 108 and of those seats—

- (a) the numbers to be filled by persons elected by the Electorates referred to in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) of clause (3) of article 171 shall be 36, 9 and 9, respectively;
- (b) the number to be filled by persons elected by the members of the Legislative Assembly of Bombay in accordance with the provisions of sub-clause (d) of the said clause shall be 42; and
- (c) the number to be filled by persons nominated by the Governor of Bombay in accordance with the provisions of sub-clause (e) of that clause shall be 12.

(2) As from the commencement of this Act, the Delimitation of Council Constituencies (Bombay) Order, 1951, shall, until other provision is made by law, have effect subject to the modifications directed by the Second Schedule and in the said Order as so modified, any reference to the State of Bombay shall be construed as a reference to that State as formed by section 8 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956.

(3) As from the commencement of this Act—

- (a) every sitting member of the said Council representing immediately before such commencement any council constituency specified in column 1 of the Table below shall be deemed to have been elected to the said Council by the Council constituency specified against that constituency in column 2 of the said Table if immediately before such commencement, he is an elector for an Assembly constituency in the State of Bombay.

THE INTER-STATE CORPORATIONS ACT, 1957

(No. 38 of 1957)

AN

to provide for the reorganisation of certain corporations functioning in two or more States by virtue of section 109 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956, and for matters connected therewith.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Eighth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the State Corporations Act, 1957.

2. Definition.—In this Act, "inter-State corporation" means any body corporate constituted under any of the Acts specified in the Schedule and functioning in two or more States by virtue of section 109 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956).

3. Power of State Governments to frame schemes.—If it appears to the Government of a State in any part of which an inter-State corporation is functioning that the inter-State corporation should be reconstituted and reorganised as one or more inter-State corporations or that it should be dissolved, the State Government may frame a scheme for such reconstitution and reorganisation or such dissolution, as the case may be, including proposals regarding the transfer of the assets, rights and liabilities of the inter-State corporation to any other corporations or State Governments and the transfer or re-employment of employees of the inter-State corporation and forward the scheme to the Central Government.

4. Reorganisation of certain inter-State corporations.—(1) On receipt of a scheme forwarded to it under section 3, the Central Government may, after consulting the State Governments concerned, approve the scheme with or without modifications and give effect to the scheme so approved by making such order as it thinks fit.

(2) An order made under sub-section (1) may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) the dissolution of the inter-State corporation;
 - (b) the reconstitution and reorganisation in any manner whatsoever of the inter-State corporation including the constitution, where necessary, of new corporations;
 - (c) the area in respect of which the reconstituted corporation or new corporation shall function and operate;
 - (d) the transfer, in whole or in part, of the assets, rights and liabilities of the inter-State corporation (including the rights and liabilities under any contract made by it) to any other corporations or State Governments and the terms and conditions of such transfer;
 - (e) the substitution of any such transferee for the inter-State corporation, or the addition of any such transferee, as a party to any legal proceeding to which the inter-State corporation is a party; and the transfer of any proceedings pending before the inter-State corporation to any such transferee;
 - (f) the transfer or re-employment of any employees of the inter-State corporation to, or by, any such transferee and subject to the provisions of section 111 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956, (37 of 1956) the terms and conditions of service applicable to such employees after such transfer or re-employment;
 - (g) the adaptations or modifications of the Act under which the inter-State corporation was constituted, whether by way of repeal or amendment, as may be necessary or expedient to give effect to the approved scheme;
 - (h) such incidental, consequential and supplementary matters as may be necessary to give effect to the approved scheme.
- (3) Where an order is made under this section transferring the assets, rights and liabilities of any inter-State corporation, then, by virtue of that order, such assets, rights and liabilities of the inter-State corporation shall vest in, and be the assets, rights and liabilities of, the transferee.
- (4) Every order made under this section shall be published in the Official Gazette and the Act under which the inter-State corporation was constituted shall have effect subject to the provisions of the order and the adaptations and modifications made thereby until, altered, repealed or amended by the competent Legislature of a State.
- (5) Every order made under this section shall be laid, before each House of Parliament, as soon as may be, after it is made.

5. Power of Central Government to add to the Schedule.—The Central Government may, by Notification in the Official Gazette, specify in the Schedule any Act under which a body corporate constituted for a State is functioning in two or more States by virtue of section 109 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956), and on the issue of such Notification, the Schedule shall be deemed to be amended by the inclusion of the said Act therein.

(i) for the words "any company", the words "any firm or company" shall be substituted;

(ii) for the words "any such person", the words "any person controlling such firm or company" shall be substituted.

14. Insertion of new sections 19A and 19B.—After section 19 of the principal Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

"19A. Costody of documents.— Where, in pursuance of an order made under sub-section (2) of section 19 or of a search warrant issued under sub-section (3) of the said section, any book or other document is furnished or seized, and the Director of Enforcement has reasons to believe that the said document would be evidence of the contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule, direction or order made thereunder, and that it would be necessary to retain the document in his custody, he may so retain the said document for a period not exceeding four months or if, before the expiry of the said period of four months, any proceedings under section 23—

(a) have been commenced before him, until the disposal of those proceedings, including the proceedings before the Appellate Board, if any, or

(b) have been commenced before a Court, until the document has been filed in that court.

19B.—Inspection.—(1) The Central Government or the Reserve Bank may, at any time cause an inspection to be made by one or more of its officers, of the books and accounts and other documents of any authorised dealer.

(2) It shall be the duty of every authorised dealer and, where the authorised dealer is a company or a firm, of every director, partner or other officer of the authorised dealer to produce to any officer making an inspection under sub-section (1) all such books, accounts and other documents in his custody or power and to furnish him with any statement or information relating to the affairs of the authorised dealer as the said officer may require of him within such time as the said officer may specify.

(3) Any person making an inspection under sub-section (1) may examine on oath any authorised dealer or his agent or, where the authorised dealer is a company or a firm, any director, partner or other officer of the authorised dealer in relation to its business.

(4) If any person fails to produce any book, account or other document or to furnish any statement or information relating to the authorised dealer which, under sub-section (2) it is his duty to produce or furnish, or to answer any question relating to the business of the authorised dealer which he is asked by an officer making an inspection under this section he shall be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this Act."

15. Amendment of section 22.—In section 22 of the principal Act, after the words and figures "under section 19", the words, figures and letters "or with any requirement under section 19B" shall be inserted.

16. Amendment of section 23.—In section 23 of the principal Act,—

(a) for sub-section (1), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) If any person contravenes the provisions of section 4, section 5, section 9 or sub-section (2) of section 12 or of any rule, direction or order made thereunder, he shall—

(a) be liable to such penalty not exceeding three times the value of the foreign exchange in respect of which the contravention has taken place, or five thousand rupees, whichever is more, as may be adjudged by the Director of Enforcement in the manner hereinafter provided, or

(b) upon conviction by a Court, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

(1A) Whoever contravenes—

(a) any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule, direction or order made thereunder, other than those referred to in sub-section (1) of this section and section 19 shall, upon conviction by a Court, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both;

(b) any direction or order made under section 19 shall, upon conviction by a Court, be punishable with fine which may extend to rupees two thousand.

(1B) Any Court trying a contravention under sub-section (1) or sub-section (1A) and the authority adjudging any contravention under clause (a) of sub-section (1) may, if it thinks fit, and in addition to any sentence or penalty which it may impose for such contravention, direct that any currency, security, gold or silver, or goods or any other money or property, in respect of which the contravention has taken place, shall be confiscated to the Central Government and further direct that the foreign exchange holdings, if any, of the person committing the contravention or any part thereof shall be brought back into India or shall be retained outside India in accordance with the directions made in this behalf.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, property in respect of which contravention has taken place shall include deposits in a bank, where the said property is converted into such deposits.”;

(b) in sub-section (2), for the words “one thousand”, the words “two thousand” shall be substituted;

(c) for sub-sections (3) and (4), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

“(3) No Court shall take cognizance—

(a) of any offence punishable under sub-section (1) except upon complaint in writing made by the Director of Enforcement, or

(b) of any offence punishable under sub-section (1A) of this section or under section 54 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (11 of 1922), as applied by section 19 of this Act, except upon complaint in writing made by the Director of Enforcement or any officer authorised in this behalf by the Central Government or the Reserve Bank by a general or special order:

Provided that where any such offence is the contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or any rule, direction or order made thereunder which prohibits the doing of an act without permission, no such complaint shall be made unless the person accused of the offence has been given an opportunity of showing that he had such permission.

(4) Nothing in the first proviso to section 188 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898 (5 of 1898), shall apply to any offence punishable under this section.”.

17. Insertion of new sections 23C to 23F.—After section 23B of the principal Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“23C. Offences by companies.—(1) If the person committing a contravention is a company, every person who, at the time the contravention was committed, was in-charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the contravention and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to punishment if he proves that the contravention took place without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent such contravention.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where a contravention under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the contravention has taken place with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) “company” means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) “director”, in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

23D. Power to adjudicate.—(1) For the purpose of adjudging under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 23 whether any person has committed a contravention, the Director of Enforcement shall hold an inquiry in the prescribed manner after giving that person a reasonable opportunity of being heard and if, on such inquiry, he is satisfied that the person has committed the contravention, he may impose such penalty as he thinks fit in accordance with the provisions of the said section 23:

Provided that if, at any stage of the inquiry, the Director of Enforcement is of opinion that having regard to the circumstances of the case, the penalty which he is empowered to impose would not be adequate, he shall, instead of imposing any penalty himself, make a complaint in writing to the Court.

(2) While holding an inquiry under this section, the Director of Enforcement shall have power to summon and enforce the attendance of any person to give evidence or to produce a document or any other thing which, in the opinion of the Director of Enforcement, may be useful for, or relevant to, the subject-matter of the inquiry.

(3) Any sum paid by way of penalty or any currency, security, gold or silver or goods or money or any other property confiscated under section 23 shall vest in the Central Government.

23E. Appeals.—(1) The Central Government may, by Notification in the Official Gazette, constitute an Appellate Board to be called the Foreign Exchange Regulation Appellate Board consisting of a Chairman and another member to be appointed by the Central Government for hearing appeals against the orders of the Director of Enforcement made under section 23.

(2) Any person aggrieved by such an order may, after depositing the sum imposed by way of penalty under section 23, and within thirty days from the date of the order, prefer an appeal to the Appellate Board:

Provided that the Appellate Board may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days, if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the Appeal in time.

- (3) On receipt of an appeal under sub-section (2), the Appellate Board may, after calling for a report from the Director of Enforcement and after making such further inquiry as it thinks fit, confirm, modify or set aside the order appealed against, and the decision of the Appellate Board shall be final; and if the sum deposited by way of penalty under sub-section (2) exceeds the amount directed to be paid by the Appellate Board, the excess amount shall be refunded.
- (4) The Appellate Board may call for the records of any proceeding in which the Director of Enforcement has made an order under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 23 and make such order in the case as it thinks fit.
- (5) No order of the Director of Enforcement made under section 23 shall be varied by the Appellate Board so as to prejudicially affect any person without giving him reasonable opportunity of being heard; and subject thereto, the Appellate Board shall follow such procedure in respect of the proceedings before it as may be prescribed.

23F. Penalty for contravention of order made by Director of Enforcement and Appellate Board.—If any person fails to pay the penalty imposed by the Director of Enforcement or the Appellate Board, or fails to comply with any of their directions or orders, he shall, on conviction before a Court, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both."

18. Amendment of section 24.—In sub-section (1) and sub-section (2) of section 24 of the principal Act, after the words "is prosecuted", the words "or proceeded against" shall be inserted.

19. Amendment of section 27.—In section 27 of the principal Act,—

(i) in sub-section (2), after clause (b), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(bb) prescribe the manner in which inquiries may be held under this Act and the procedure to be followed in respect of the proceedings before the Director of Enforcement or the Appellate Board.";

(ii) after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(3) All rules made under this Act shall be laid for not less than thirty days before both Houses of Parliament as soon as possible after they are made and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make during the Session in which they are so laid or the Session immediately following."
